LEARNING TODAY: A GLIMPSE INTO INSTRUCTIONAL DESIGN PROCESSES AND PRACTICES

Dear Staff

The University Teaching & Learning Office cordially invites you to a webinar hosted by the UKZN Instructional & Learning Design team.

About the Webinar

The main aim of this webinar is to emphasise the crucial role of instructional design in promoting successful learning outcomes in UKZN. Through this event, we aim to provide a comprehensive understanding of instructional design processes and practices and emphasise their direct impact on improving the quality of education. Attendees can expect to gain valuable insights from experienced professionals, engage in practical discussions and network to support collaboration within the instructional design community.

Join us as we explore the intricacies of instructional design, its central role in achieving effective learning outcomes and its contribution to the ongoing development of educational practice at UKZN. This webinar promises to be an enriching experience for all participants who wish to deepen their understanding of the critical importance of instructional design in facilitating vibrant and engaging learning experiences.
